Midland Cable Access

(989) 837-3474

www.midland-mi.org/mctv

The MCTV Network operates four cable access TV channels on the Charter Communications system. These channels contribute to a sense of community, providing more transparency in government and a free speech forum to individuals and organizations.

MGTV-96 - Midland Government TV: Watch meetings of City Council and nine boards and commissions on MGTV-96. You'll also see programs and messages about services provided by the City of Midland. Check this channel for weather warnings and information on emergency situations. Call 989-837-3304 with any questions on the City's involvement with Midland County's emergency notification system.

MCTV-97 - Messages: View messages submitted by non-profit organizations about their events and services on MCTV-97.

MPS-TV 98 - Midland Public Schools: Tune in to MPS-TV 98 for Midland Public Schools' Board of Education meetings, school sports, concerts, and information about activities in your neighborhood school.

MCTV-99 - Community Voices: MCTV-99 is Midland's public access channel showing programs submitted by individuals and non-profits. Examples include church services, arts programming, sports, service clubs, and non-profit organizations.

PROGRAM SCHEDULES: Find program schedules for these channels on MCTV's website, Charter's digital program guide, and the Midland Daily News Sunday edition. These channels are also located on the digital tier, 991-994. To view programs on the Internet, submit messages, or find more information about this service, visit MCTV's website at www.midland-mi.org/mctv.

Videos on City services are also uploaded to the City's YouTube page (www.youtube.com/citymidland).

PARTICIPATE: To submit programs, message boards, or use MCTV's production equipment to create your own programs, you must be a resident of the city or county of Midland and pay an annual access user fee of $25. MCTV also provides training in video production.

LOCATION: MCTV is located on the lower level of Grace A. Dow Memorial Library, 1710 W. St. Andrews Rd., Midland, MI.

OFFICE HOURS: Monday-Friday, 9:30 a.m.-5:30 p.m. Open weeknights and Saturdays for access users by appointment.
